“... very few have that special something to get past my own critical defenses. Stephen DiJoseph the musician -- using nothing flashier than beautiful, accessible, original music -- easily skirted those defenses to register a hit. ”
– Matt Mielnick, Kirkland Art Center, New York

“It is important to us to continue to present the best music that we can and Stephen DiJoseph’s show with Dierdre Flint was a very successful night all around. We look forward to having him back.”
– Jesse Lundy, The Point Entertainment

“This guy is a (expletive) genius! Complex, bold, powerful, awe-inspiring performances and arrangements, the likes of which this listener has ever witnessed.”
– Brian Austin Whitney- Founder, JP Folks International Music Organization

“Virtuostic, comedic poetry in motion. Stephen DiJoseph is mind-boggling.”
– Steve Bryant, QVC TV

“...accessible brilliance...what Stephen does with rhythm tone and color is simply amazing! He’s no longer merging. He’s there.”
– Al Foster, Songwriter’s Monthly

“...a masterful musician...very inventive with melody. Seeing Stephen live is astounding! He holds your attention waiting to see what he will do next.”
– Marie Dalton, Fortissimo House Concerts

“Left my audiences spellbound!”
– Lisa Ferrari, Wiffeldust Salon

“Stephen amazed, delighted and engaged the audience with humor, his unique style and masterful work on guitar and piano.” – Aerie Coffeehouse

“Stephen’s performance was truly outstanding. We were completely blown away...speechless...mesmerized! Stephen has a magic in his composing and playing that could never be duplicated.”
– Dimensions in Jazz, Portland Maine

“...DiJoseph plays with a keen sense of melody...complex and melodic songwriting...attuned sense of tension... obviously a skilled musician and talented songwriter.”
– Dan Short, Casco Bay Weekly

“...a sensitive nuanced artist.”
– Sara Marcus, Philadelphia City Paper
